

HELP FIND THE HOMERUN CURE FOR ALL CANCER.

Selina was a sweet, sassy girl who loved softball, Girl Scouts, arts and crafts, musical theatre, marching band, playing her cello and helping out at her church as an altar server and in the faith formation program. Selina made friends easily and was in fifth grade. Her smile and laughter could brighten any room. Selina had dreamed of being a scientist or art teacher someday. Her strength and grace in the face of this illness was truly an inspiration. She is greatly missed by all who were blessed to know her.
